

Bozeman Yellowstone International Airport COVID 19 - Summer 2020 Revised Flight Schedule as of June, 2020

BOZEMAN, MT (June 15, 2020). Bozeman Yellowstone International Airport (BZN) has updated the summer 2020 flight schedule to reflect changes due to COVID-19. While several markets have been temporarily discontinued, we now expect non-stop service to thirteen markets through the course of the summer. Available seats in the BZN market for July are expected to be approximately 53% of normal. Despite the significant reduction in available seats, we are pleased to see several new services started such as Sun Country's entry into the BZN market with service to Minneapolis/St. Paul, Allegiant's new service to Nashville and we expect JetBlue to begin service to Boston on July 1. Schedules remain fluid but trends are gradually improving. We may see additional service added as the summer progresses. The next flight schedule update we anticipate will be on or about July 15, 2020. (All schedules subject to change):
